

January Annual Business Meeting

The Current Economic, Political and Business Climate

Associated Builders and Contractors of Georgia, Inc.

Dr. Roger Tutterow will provide a timely overview of the current national and regional economic environment. Topics include recent challenges to the economic expansion including the roles of commodity prices and the “credit crunch.” Dr. Tutterow will address the ongoing corrections in the residential and commercial real estate markets, recent shifts in real estate financing and implications of the recent elections for the political climate both “inside the beltway” and in our industry.

ABC’s Annual Business Meeting will include installation of its 2009 Board of Directors, introduction of the 2009 Future Leaders program participants and an update of ABC’s current financial status.

Speaker bio:

Roger Tutterow is Professor of Economics at Mercer University, has served as a consultant on financial economics and statistical modeling for corporate clients ranging from Fortune 500 companies to closely-held businesses. He has provided expert testimony on economic, financial and statistical matters in state and federal court and before the Georgia Public Service Commission. Dr. Tutterow has given several hundred speeches to professional and civic groups on various topics in the economic, business and political arenas.

He was selected as one of “Georgia’s Most Influential” by James magazine and by Georgia Trend magazine as one of the “forty under 40” rising stars in business, government and academia. In 2003, Georgia Governor Sonny Perdue appointed Dr. Tutterow to serve on the Governor’s Council of Economic Advisors.
