

Who Should Attend

Anyone who is any position of authority relating to any type of construction work in which scaffolding is used.

OSHA requires that a “Competent Person” supervise when a scaffold is “erected, moved, dismantled or altered,” and requires that a “Qualified Person” design a scaffold. A Competent Person must have experience, knowledge of regulations and safety, authority to act to eliminate hazards, and must apply these in the field.

About the Instructor

This class will be taught by John Ambrosia, an instructor with H B Training and Consulting. John is a Master Trainer with over 35 years' experience in all phases of construction – as project manager, owner's representative, architect's representative, construction manager, general and senior project superintendent, contract administrator, and in scheduling and document control.

John has served as General Superintendent for top 100 ENR contractors. He is certified by the National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER) and serves on NCCER's curriculum review board.

This course is designed to meet workers' specific needs in scaffolding safety and the required OSHA standards.

Note: This training is offered to help the attendee gain competence, but does not certify that he or she is a competent person as defined in 29 CFR 926.32 (f). The designation of the competent person and the determination of his or her ability is the sole responsibility of the employer.
